2. SHARIAH PRINCIPLES

Applicable Shariah principles are as follows:-

2.1 QARD

2.1.1 Qard refers to a contract of lending money by a lender to a borrower where the latter is bound to repay an equivalent replacement amount to the lender. Bank as a borrower in this situation will be liable to repay all deposits of the Customer (the lender) when requested, subject to the Bank's procedures.

2.1.2 Customer consents to the Bank to utilize with his/her/their whole or any part of monies in the manner that the Bank deems fit (including but not limited to financing or investment) that does not contradict with Shariah principles and as permitted under the DFIA and BNM.

2.2 TAWARRUQ

2.2.1 Tawarruq consists of two (2) contracts of sale and purchase. The first transaction involves the sale of Commodity by the seller (Customer) to the purchaser (Bank) based on deferred payment. Then the purchaser (Bank) at the first sale transaction will sell these Commodity to a third party (Commodity Supplier) for cash.

2.2.2 Under the arrangement, Tawarruq transaction occurs between the Bank and the Customer when the Bank purchases the Commodity on behalf of the Customer from the Commodity Supplier in cash and subsequently the Bank is to purchase the Commodity from the Customer (the Bank acting on behalf of Customer to sell the Commodity) based on the Shariah concept of Murabahah (cost price plus profit) based on deferred payment. Subsequently, the Bank will sell the Commodity to Commodity Supplier for cash.

2.2.3 The Bank will purchase the Commodity from the Customer after the Bank (as Agent) purchases the Commodity from the Commodity Supplier. In order to show the Bank's determination to complete the said transaction, security deposit (Hamish Jiddiyah) will be paid (if necessary) by the Bank to the Customer whereby upon completion of the Commodity purchase transaction, the security deposit (if any) will be considered as part of the Bank's Purchase Price to be paid by the Bank.

2.2.4 Agency Transactions. The Bank's appointment as an agent for conducting the Commodity's sale and purchase transactions is subject to the Terms and Conditions specified in the Account Opening Application Form and the following Terms and Conditions shall apply:

- b. In relation to the power, discretion, authorization and obligations under this Terms and Conditions, the Bank shall act as a non-exclusive agent for the Customer and limited to the extent which expressly provided in this Terms and Conditions and which is related to the Agency Transactions from time to time and the Bank otherwise shall not be considered as an agent for and on behalf of the Customer in any other aspects.
- c. The Parties agree that the appointment of the Bank as an agent in force when the Bank receives consent from the Customer to appoint the Bank as the Customer's agent in the Deposit Account Opening Application Form or any medium of communication adopted by the Parties.

- d. Through the appointment of the said agent, the Bank shall purchase the Commodity equal to the price specified by the Customer in cash from the Commodity Supplier. The Commodity purchasing transaction shall be executed by the Bank on the next Business Day according to the commodity purchasing daily report. Any Purchase Transaction carried out on behalf of the Customer, the Bank shall register ownership of the said Commodity on behalf of the Customers.
- e. The Customer agrees that the purchase of the Commodity made by the Bank as the Customer's agent can also be carried in bulk that involves purchasing for other customers.
- f. The Customer agrees that the purchases made by the Bank as the Customer's agent is based on an as is where is basis and the Customer agrees to waive the Bank's liabilities against any damages and/or defects in the goods purchased by the Bank on behalf of the Customer.
- g. In relation to Paragraph 2.2.4 (d), Customer hereby agrees that the Bank will provide an advance amount based on the Shariah contract of Qard (Loan) to cover the shortfall to purchase the Commodity from Third Party in the event of the customer's deposit balance is lesser than the amount stated in the commodity purchasing daily report. However, the net amount after deducting the advance amount duly paid by the Bank shall be considered as a settlement of Bank's Purchase Price.
- h. Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Customer, upon completion of each Purchase Transaction of the Commodity, the Bank shall purchase the said Commodity from the Customer (Bank as an agent) based on Shariah concept of Murabahah (cost price plus profit) on deferred payment. Each Murabahah Purchase transactions shall be made on the same date in which the Purchase Transaction of the Commodity is completed.
- i. After completion of the sale transaction, the Bank acting on behalf of the Customer shall immediately transfer ownership, rights and interests of the Commodity to the Bank and the Customer shall immediately enable the Bank to assume ownership of the Commodity.
- j. The Customer is entitled to request at any time from the Bank and the Bank shall be in such condition to provide details of sales transaction made by the Bank on behalf of the Customer.
- k. The appointment of the Bank as Customer's agent will also be effective for automatic renewal activities and the placement of new deposit for existing customers.

- I. The automatic renewal shall be subject to the current Profit Rate set by the Bank at the renewal date unless it is approved by the Bank to proceed at a special rate.

2.2.5 Murabahah Purchase. Murabahah Purchase transactions that will take place between the Bank and the Customer is subject to the following terms and conditions:

- a.
